

The Four Letter Word

That Will Rock Your World

Love—the surprising, liberating definition that will alter and amplify your life.

The pandemic has us disconnected, divided, and disgruntled. Social media posts are ending friendships, conspiracy theories are multiplying faster than Covid rabbits, and mask shaming is keeping neighbors fenced in. The beneficiaries of it all—wineries and therapists.

Although disease and discord separated us, love will bring us together. And no one knows more about love than Kim Sorrelle, The Love Maven. During a year long experiment living out love, looking for its true meaning, Kim's life changing, mind blowing, revolutionary discoveries found that love is far from just an emotion. It is living, giving, breathing, walking, and talking. And the depths of her realizations will change the world.
